

In gratitude to all of my teachers.
Especially to Jack Nowinski, Carmine Caruso and Jimmy Knepper, and also to all of the great musicians with whom I have ever worked.
Each of them taught me something profound.

And with many thanks to Steve Shires, without whose generosity, understanding and passion for the making of fine brass instruments I might never have discovered many of the ideas that I present in the following pages.
And thanks as well to Chuck DePaolo of Hickey's Music Center for his generous help in formatting this book.

Also...thanks to my loving friends and family, without whose many little helps I would not have been able to finish this work.
The Beatles were right. We do get by with a little help from our friends.

But most importantly,
in memory of my friend Timex.
The greatest teacher that I ever met.
